

HFWI CELEBRATES BRITISH SCIENCE WEEK - 11-15 MARCH 2024

Join HFWI on their British Science Week programme of events planned to celebrate Women and Girls working in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM). Many events are free of charge. You may attend more than one event from the full event programme given below, these include – a river visit, a cyber security talk, a practical citizen scientist session to name but a few. Be sure to book your place quickly to avoid disappointment. There will be tea/coffee available at indoor visits.
